A charitable collecting articles for the Y. M. C. A. rummage sale Friday afternoon a $5 jardiniere went with the 16 or 18 hats which a Fairmount street housewife had trimmed and left in the hall. An offer of $25 was just being made for the prized jar when a hurry telephone message explained the mistake and held up the sale.

NAPOLEON ONCE SAID:
"A footsore army is an army half defeated." Men in training camps, in cantonments, in the army and navy suffer from foot troubles more than from any other. Every comfort kit should contain one or more boxes of Allen's Foot-Paste, with the ring of the bell on the mill for several minutes. At first the ringing of the bell was thought to be an alarm of fire, but when the cause was learned the local residents responded very generously. The militia
